PIONEER MOTHER PASSES TO REST

Mrs. Charlotte Sprague Enters Portals of Eternity at Advanced Age of 91 Years.

Mrs. Charlotte Hubbard Sprague, ninety-one years old, mother of Attorney Frank Sprague of this place, passed away Monday at the Pierce home on Napa street, where she had been making her home for some time past. Patient and cheerful until the end, the pioneer mother sank peacefully to rest. During her last illness, and prior to her own illness, her son often visited her, and always came away in wonderment at her beautiful philosophy of life and calm outlook on the visitation of the Death Angel, for whom she waited with faith and resignation.

Charlotte Hubbard Sprague was a native of New York state, and came to California in the early sixties, settling in Yolo county, where her husband practiced law and she took part in the earliest movement for the granting of suffrage to women. In Yolo she reared three children, an only daughter, who died some years ago, and two sons, Attorney Frank Sprague and Captain Fred Sprague of the medical department of the United States Army, stationed at Picinney Arsenal, New Jersey.

The funeral took place Thursday, and a wealth of flowers covered the last resting-place of deceased, in peaceful Mountain Cemetery.

Rev. Mr. Cookman officiated at the Bates home, where the services were held, and also at the last sad rites upon the hillside. Many friends and acquaintances attended the funeral, and relatives were here from Dinuba, San Mateo and Alameda.

BASEBALL PLAYER HAD BLOOD-POISONING

Duffy Lewis is at his home at Boyes Springs suffering from an attack of blood-poisoning in the arm. A short time ago Lewis scratched his arm, and while doing some painting about his home the scratch became infected. He is under the care of a physician, and it is hoped in a few days an improvement will be noted in the condition of his arm. But for the injury, Lewis would have joined his baseball aggregation in the training quarters at Jacksonville, Florida. He expects to leave soon.

PETALUMA SECESSIONISTS IN SONOMA WEDNESDAY

Emmett Olmsted, politician and editor of Petaluma, and Homer Wood, also of the Egg Basket City, were in Sonoma Wednesday, trying to stir up interest in seceding from Sonoma county, and to arrange for a meeting at which they want to produce statistics to show the low tax rate of the proposed new county which Petaluma hopes to form.

SILVERWARE GIVEN AWAY AT MISSION CREAMERY

With every purchase at the Mission Creamery, a coupon is given away on Rogers silverware. By saving these coupons, many fine articles may be secured. The high-class dairy produce of the Creamery and the premiums should attract many new customers to Sonoma's enterprising manufacturing plant.

AUTOMOTIVE SHOW BEGINS TODAY

Santa Rosa Will be Mecca of Crowds During Coming Week to View the Newest Styles in Cars.

Santa Rosa will entertain big crowds during the automotive show, which opens in that city today, and will last until next Saturday night. It is being held in the Fashion Garage, under the auspices of the Sonoma County Automobile Trade Association, and is being managed by L. L. Putnam, secretary of the association.

It is rather singular that the most approved method of displaying the characteristics of motor vehicles and the beauty and utility of automobile accessories is the same formerly employed to exhibit the horse in all of his strength, perfection of form, gait and speed. The Santa Rosa show will be in many respects like unto the fairs of old, during which the equine interest was largest. This exhibition will reveal the speed, pedigree, form and accomplishments or "marks," of every entry, and will surpass in general interest any of old horse fairs given in the environs of Santa Rosa and which added no little to the reputation of the city and of the county as centers of fine stock breeding.

The Fashion Garage has a floor space of 16,000 square feet and this is being used as the scene and place of the automotive show. The big room is adequately, even brilliantly illuminated in the evening. The magnificent embellishments used at the recent Oakland Automotive Show and which cost $10,000, decorates the Fashion Garage and adds immensely to the spectacular attractiveness of the whole picture and to the allurements of the inherent qualities of the cars.

During each evening of the Show, vocal and musical concerts will be given and novel entertaining specialties added to delight the visitors. The entertainments and the brilliant and instructive vehicular spectacle will be appreciated by the young as well as the old, by the kiddies as well as the grown-ups and by the man or woman who owns or who does not own and drive a car.

The list of entries is as follows: Thirty-eight makes of passenger cars, entered by seventeen exhibitors. Fifteen makes of trucks, entered by twelve exhibitors.

The most modern accessories, entered by sixteen exhibitors. Every foot of space in the Fashion Garage has been allotted.

J. HOFFMANN SELLS HIS FINE HOME AT EL VERANO

J. Hoffman and wife of El Verano have disposed of their beautiful home there, consisting of seven acres of land and fine residence, to Mrs. Sordard Lombard, a wealthy widow of San Francisco, who will make her summer home in this valley.

Mrs. Lombard is a well known apartment house proprietor of San Francisco, and is a charming Chilean lady. She looked at many other places before coming here, but found nothing so highly improved and finely kept up as the Hoffman place.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, who have resided in Sonoma Valley for the past ten years, leave here with some regret, but will join their children, all of whom reside in the metropolis.

REVENUE MEN MADE RAID HERE

Dry Agents Make Finds in Sonoma Valley Resorts, and Also at Petaluma.

Prohibition enforcement officers sent out by W. A. Kelly of the San Francisco headquarters, raided two well-known Sonoma Valley resorts Saturday, and seized a small quantity of wines and liquors.

At the Chauvet Hotel in Glen Ellen, in a closet under the stairway they found some cordials which had been "stored there and forgotten," so the proprietor states, when the country went dry.

At the Denot Hotel at Caliente the officers are said to have found wine and aqua vita somewhere on the premises. The revenue agents took the evidence, and prepared to swear to complaints.

The officers were said to be hunting an illicit still, but no moonshine was located.

From here the revenue agents went to Petaluma, and the following account of their activities there is given by a Petaluma paper:

Saturday three United States revenue officers working on the special prohibition enforcement detail arrived here per auto from Sonoma Valley, where on Friday they raided several resorts. When they reached here, they proceeded to the office of Police Chief Flohr, and after a conference started out.

Chief Flohr accompanied Deputy C. W. Herbert, Constable Sullivan accompanied Deputy D. W. Smith, and Police Officer Ed A. Huser accompanied Deputy Applestall.

Several places were visited, which were found to contain no wines or liquors, and the officers took their departure, leaving the proprietors unmolested.

However, at the Yosemite House, 301 East Washington street, Officers Sullivan and Smith secured some rock and rye, and stated that the barkeeper poured some other liquid into the sink. S. Peters is the owner, but the place is conducted by an employee.

At the Brooklyn Hotel, Officers Applestall and Huser secured part of a bottle of vermouth, some rock and rye, and some grapo. J. Buletti is the owner.

At the Eureka saloon they secured grapo and special brandies, stated by the owner to be stomach ache remedies. Chief Flohr and Deputy Applestall visited this place, which is conducted by William Dittman.

At the Del Monte saloon, Main and California streets, conducted by A. Calletti, Deputy Applestall and Officer Huser landed nine bottles of red wine, eight bottles of other wines, part of a bottle of grapo and a broken bottle of red wine.

All of the seized wines and liquors were placed in the vault in the office of Police Chief Flohr, and were duly labeled and sealed, and will be used as evidence against the owners of the places visited.

The deputies stated that at San Francisco they will swear to complaints before the United States Commissioner, and that a deputy United States marshal will visit Petaluma some day next week to serve the warrants and arrange for the hearings.

It is stated that this is but the first of a series of raids that are to be made, and the same action is being taken all over the country.

E. BERTOLLOTTI A VICTIM OF INFLUENZA

Edwardo Bertolotti passed away at his home near the Sebastiani cannery on Tuesday, following illness from influenza. He was highly esteemed by his employer, and by friends and neighbors. A widow, Maria Bertolotti, and a young daughter, Gilda, are left to mourn a good husband and kind parent.

Mr. Bertolotti was a native of Italy but had traveled widely, and was for a time a resident of Southern France. He was 39 years of age.

Rev. Father Byrne administered the sacred rites of the Catholic Church to the deceased before he passed away, and after services at St. Francis Church on Thursday morning sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains to the Catholic Cemetery, where interment took place.

LIBRARY BENEFIT CARD PARTY MARCH 17TH

At the meeting of the Board of Library Trustees Tuesday, it was decided to carry out the plan for a benefit card party at the Woman's club house on St. Patrick's Day, the 17th of March. The proceeds will be used to buy new books for the library and every one is urged to attend the card party and aid the worthy cause. Refreshments and music will be enjoyed in the evening's entertainment, and fine prizes will be offered to the highest score holders. Decorations and score cards will be suggestive of the "wearing of the green."

P. C. Dobbels is recovering from his recent illness.

SONOMA STREET IMPROVEMENT

As Preliminary To Calling Bond Election For $57,000 Trustees Name Howe & Peters to Take Charge.

At a meeting of the City Trustees of Sonoma, Friday night (February 28th) arrangements for the services of Howe & Peters, consulting engineers of San Francisco, were entered into by the passage of a resolution. The firm has been employed to put through the street work and sewer extension for Sonoma, and are to receive a fee of $3250 if the $57,000 bond election carries, or $200 in case it fails of passage. The following is the resolution as unanimously adopted:

Whereas, This Board contemplates calling a bond election to submit to the voters of the city a proposition to bond the city in the sum of $57,000 to finance certain street improvements and an extension to the sewers; and

Whereas, It will be necessary to have proper legal proceedings in conjunction with said bond election and subsequent plans, specifications, surveys, supervision and inspection of construction and the engineering work, if the said bonds are voted; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Board of Trustees, that the firm of Howe & Peters, consulting engineers of San Francisco, be employed as engineers in charge of all the foregoing at a fee of $3250, which fee is understood to include all engineering expenses of any nature connected with the complete installation of the work, together with the necessary proceedings; provided, that in the event of the failure of the bonds to carry, the employment of the said firm of engineers shall terminate, and the fee of $3250 shall not apply, but the said firm shall be compensated for their work in connection with the necessary proceedings, the amount of such compensation being understood to be $200 (two hundred dollars).

CITY TRUSTEES' MARCH SESSION

The city trustees regular March meeting was devoid of any important business although many necessary routine matters were disposed of. A vote of thanks was ordered given Dr. Merritt and also the Sonoma Valley Women's Club for the old Mission bell which has been returned to Sonoma through the generosity of Dr. Merritt and the interest of the Women's Club.

Permits were granted P. Perazzo and A. J. Martinson to install gasoline stations. Sam Sebastiani asked to be given the proper grade of his street in order to put in a concrete thoroughfare along his property and in front of his handsome new residence.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

WAS CHARGED WITH MURDER

San Rafael, Mar. 2.-A charge of murder was placed against Joseph Rossi to-day, when it was discovered that he is wearing the shoes of a dead man found concealed in a pile of brush and cinders a half-mile from Rossi's cabin in Ignacio.

The shoes were identified to-day by Tony Paolini, who said they belonged to his cousin, B. De Marcelli. De Marcelli was employed by Rossi as a charcoal burner until the day before Christmas, when he disappeared.

District Attorney Greer and Sheriff J. J. Keating charge that Rossi killed De Marcelli and attempted to destroy the body by a charcoal fire.

WIFE NOW IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Edgar Clements underwent an operation for appendicitis this week in San Francisco, and reports from the hospital state that the patient is doing nicely. Mrs. Clements' husband, Edgar Clements, the well-known young orchardist, has just returned from the hospital also, but is now almost fully recovered. Friends of the young couple sincerely hope that there is much health and happiness in store for them after the present siege of sickness is past.

CALLED TO BROADER FIELD OF SERVICE

Fred Boynton Summoned to the Great Beyond, After Brave Battle With Pneumonia—Widely Mourned.

After a game fight for life with pneumonia, from which he seemed to emerge the victor, the Angel of Death came Monday night to claim Fred Boynton, and the splendid citizen, friend and good fellow crossed the great chasm of eternity. His death caused profound sorrow wherever the news of his passing was heard, and the kindly smile and genial, gentlemanly personality of Boyes Springs leading citizen was recalled by his many acquaintances, as they expressed their deep regret at his untimely death.

Fred Boynton was forty-nine years of age, and was a native of New Hampshire. He came of a good family, his father having been a chemist and soda water manufacturer of the New England states. After receiving a liberal education, he came West, and ultimately located in Sonoma Valley, in the future of which he became deeply interested.

He was at first interested in Boyes Springs mineral water, and more recently became one of the company which inaugurated the new motor bus line between the Springs and San Rafael. He was also manager of the Sonoma Valley Lumber Company at Fellers, owned by L. P. Kearney.

Some years ago, Mr. Boynton married Mrs. Shirley, a widow of means, and she passed away in 1918, leaving him considerable property.

Fred Boynton was a man of innate politeness and courtesy, was well read and most companionable. He was liked by both men and women, and his death causes a void in the community which will indeed be long in the consciousness of those with whom he had been associated.

His illness from flu, which developed into bronchial pneumonia two weeks ago, caused grave apprehension to his friends, and countless messages and inquiries besieged his doctor and nurses. The patient, however, made it seemed, a winning fight, and last week so much improved that Mrs. L. H. Green, who had been in charge of the case, left on more urgent calls, and his doctor pronounced him out of all danger.

His fiancée, Mrs. Ames of San Francisco, then came to care for him, and he continued to improve until Saturday last, when lobar pneumonia developed on the same side which has just been affected, with the result that his condition became alarmingly dangerous.

That "Death loves a shining mark" seemed all too true, for on Monday the Grim Reaper, as though reluctant to leave Fred Boynton on this earthly sphere, wrote "Fins" on his Book of Life.

Thus closed a life of usefulness, optimism and sympathetic understanding of his fellow-men; a life devoted to the betterment of everything about him; a life of progress and success. That the world was better for his living, that there was a little more of cheer, and a little more of civility, because of his presence, was recognized by his friends, every one, and it was a sad day yesterday when they came to the parting of the ways, and at Halsted & Company's mortuary, San Francisco, paid their last sad respects to the deceased.

He has gone on a long journey, but will live long in the affections and esteem of the valley he loved.

BOUGHT VICTORIA HOTEL AT EL VERANO

Ole Johnson, who bought the former Lounibos property, the Victoria Hotel, at El Verano, may not wreck it as he first intended. He finds the building in good condition, and says his buy is worth holding on to for a speculation. He is said to have paid about $1000 for the property.

It was reported by Santa Rosa papers that the Bellevue Hotel a brick block, was being torn down, which of course is erroneous.

CITY TRUSTEE IS TO WED

Wedding Bells Are to Ring for Angelo Beretta and Miss Angelina Mazza in Near Future.

Angelo Beretta, City Trustee and prosperous business man of Sonoma, is to wed Miss Angelina Mazza, a pretty Sonoma girl, daughter of D. Mazza and niece of Mayor Dal Pozzetto, early this spring.

There has been rumor of the romance between the popular city official and the charming young girl he has won for his bride, but it was only yesterday that the handsome diamond engagement ring was given by Mr. Beretta to his fiancée and the news of the coming wedding confirmed.

Beretta is secretary of a local corporation, and has extensive property interests both here and in San Francisco. He will take his bride on a honeymoon tour to Southern California in his motor car. They will reside here.

CAR OVERTURNED. STEURMER UNHURT

Walter Steurmer, the well-known jitney driver of Boyes Springs, had a narrow escape from serious injury and perhaps death yesterday morning, when his Ford car turned over twice and landed in the ditch in front of the W. L. Murphy home on Spain street.

Steurmer was coming into Sonoma from the Springs, and attempted to make a quick turn around the corner near the scene of the mishap, when his wheels locked, and the car kept on going west, turning two complete somersaults and landing bottom side up in the ditch opposite Murphy's gate. Steurmer stayed with the car, which was badly damaged, and was able to extricate himself from the wreck.

Passers-by came to the rescue, and after righting the car, it was towed to a local garage for repairs.

Steurmer was most fortunate to escape with a lame leg, sustaining no other injuries.

SUPREME COURT REFUSES TO REVIEW FETTERS CASE

The Supreme Court has refused to review the case of Mrs. Emma Feters, who appealed to the high tribunal after conviction for a war-time prohibition offense. A jail sentence imposed now confronts her. Mrs. Feters is a very sick woman, as when recently stricken with the flu her general health had been so badly undermined with the ordeal of continued trials that she has never rallied from it.

CHAFFEE OF BROADWAY, 76 YEARS OLD, DIES

Crean Chaffee, a native of Pennsylvania, aged 76 years, died at his home on Broadway Wednesday night. He is survived by a widow, Cora Chaffee, and three sons. Two sons are employed in San Francisco, one at the City Recorder's office. A third son resides here, and with his mother will soon leave for Hood River, Ore.

Mr. Chaffee was buried in Valley Cemetery, where sleep many pioneers of the Sonoma Valley. He was a recent comer, and resided on the former Dr. Walliser place.

ORCHARDIST IS VICTIM OF FLU

Charles Edna Deane, thirty-five years of age, and a well-known orchardist of Sonoma Valley, died Thursday night, after a short illness, from influenza.

Mr. Deane came here a few years ago and purchased the old Graves place, which he set out to prune orchard. His father is a prominent nurseryman of San Mateo county.

Deceased was a native of England, and left a wife, Norah Deane, and a young family to mourn his untimely summons to the Great Beyond.

VETERAN OF WAR BURIED HERE

Frank La Vine, Who Fought in the Civil War, Died at Santa Monica February 27th.

Frank La Vine, a veteran of the Civil War, died at the Soldiers' Home in Santa Monica on February 27th. He was seventy-five years of age, and some years ago made his home here with his daughter, Mrs. Ed Johansen. He was a Vermont man, and one of the sturdy pioneers of the state.

Many years ago, while a permanent resident of this valley, he was engaged in the contracting business, and owned the fine ranch now the property of Charles Deane. Mr. La Vine first settled on the old Swayne place, near Vineburg, now the home of E. M. Cutter. He took an active interest in politics, and at one time was an employee of the United States Mint at San Francisco.

The funeral took place here Thursday, with interment in Mountain Cemetery, the remains of the venerable father and soldier being laid to rest beside his wife, who crossed the Great Divide in 1880.

Among the relatives here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johansen and family of Vallejo, Mrs. A. A. Enke of Oakland, Mrs. M. Enke and daughters of Oakland and Frank C. La Vine of Stockton.

Mesdames Johansen, A. A. Enke and M. Enke are daughters of deceased, and Frank C. La Vine only surviving son.

A son, Fred, and a daughter, Blanche, preceded their father to the Great Beyond.

Miss Macquill and Mrs. Fary of Eldridge have been very ill with flu.

PETALUMA GETS WRONG STEER

The irrepressible and unquenchable Petalumas, who are trying to get Sonoma Valley into a new county which they would form, now propose to call the new county Bear Flag county.

The Petaluma Courier of last Friday stated: "It is practically certain that the Sonoma Valley will be included in the new county. Both the Sonoma Valley and Northern Marin naturally belong in the new county. Since it has been published that figures will show a reduction of taxes in the new county, more expressions have come from the Sonoma Valley to the effect that Sonoma Valley people desire to be included."

We do not know where Editor Wood gets his encouragement, but we do know that every farmer and bonafide tax-payer in Sonoma Valley who is against county division. Here are opinions from two farmers, who were in town Wednesday:

Otto Rufus of Buena Vista—I am against county division, and think Petaluma is trying to feather its own nest.

Robert Potter Hill of Eldridge—I do not favor county division, and do not think any one in Sonoma Valley does.

Even the expected support from a Sonoma paper has failed to materialize, and the disgruntled editor is very sore about endorsing the unpopular movement, even going so far in his coyness as to say in a recent issue that Sonoma Valley might "favorably consider consolidation with Napa."

Petaluma has no backing in Sonoma Valley that will aid it in its attempt to split up Sonoma county and set up a court house and official family of its own.

All the Homeric eloquence on tap will not change public opinion in Sonoma Valley.

FORDSON TRACTOR DOES FINE PLOWING

Doing the work of six big plow horses, and with a pull generated by kerosene, the Fordson tractor, as demonstrated here last Monday, was an eye-opener.

Busby & Coates had a nice crowd at the Empanan ranch to see the clever work of George Merkel and J. H. Benson, the experts who put the tractor and the specially made implements for it through their paces. The tractor travels twice the speed of horses, and never hesitates. A piece of sidehill land was plowed up, and it was evident that the Fordson will plow any depth and runs like a clock on its kerosene fuel. The implements designed specially for the tractor are marvels of ingenuity and efficiency.

Among the interested spectators at the demonstration were Dan Friedger and Max Soley of Eldridge.

Busby & Coates are busy booking orders for the Fordson.

The State Home has a Fordson, and this week purchased a Knapp orchard plow from the local agents, who are advising all their customers to order early. Knapp plows are made in San Jose.

SONOMA HAS GROWING FURNITURE FACTORY

A. W. Adler is making Sonoma famous as a furniture manufacturing center, and is in receipt of more orders than his present plant on Spain street can fill. He has over a hundred pieces of case goods, such as bureaus and chiffoniers, in his finishing room at the present time, and has had to add seven men to his list of employees. Mr. Adler intends to shortly install an air brush for spraying paint and varnish. He states that he will continue to improve and enlarge his factory to meet the requirements of his rapidly-growing business.

SPECIAL TRAIN OF SONOMA COUNTY EGGS

Last Saturday there was shipped out of Petaluma, the greatest egg center in the world, fifteen carloads of choice Sonoma county eggs, consigned direct to New York City markets.

The shipment consisted of 344,000 dozen, or 3,888,000 eggs. It was the largest shipment sent out at one time in the history of the egg industry in Sonoma county.

This shipment marked the first time that a train loaded with eggs only has been shipped across the continent. The cars hold from 400 to 600 cases. The value of the shipment is about $100,000.

It is stated that about three hundred bales of straw were used in packing the eggs.

You will read it first in the Index-Tribune.

ATTENDED BIG TIME IN ALAMEDA

E. C. Coates and M. H. Hibbard went to Alameda last Saturday night to attend a big conclave and initiation of Scouts at Neptune Beach. The Sonoma representatives drove to the Masonic Temple, on Park street, and from there were escorted to the pavilion in the west end of the city, where a fine banquet, dancing and entertainment was given to over 400 members of the popular branch of Masonry.

Messrs. Coates and Hibbard drove down from here in a Ford de luxe, making the trip to Alameda via Vallejo and Rodeo.

JOINED COMRADES IN RE-UNION AT STANFORD

Ray Cooper went to Palo Alto last Saturday night, where he attended a dinner dance and re-union of his comrades of the Stanford University Hospital unit, which served overseas during the recent war. The affair was most enjoyable and took place in the beautiful club house where these ex-service men make their headquarters.

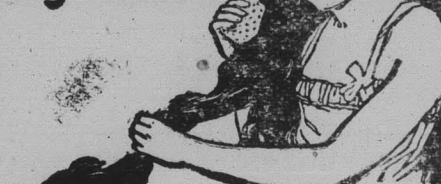

Mr. Cooper met former comrades with whom he served at Chateau Thierry and in Scotland.

DINNER PARTY IN HONOR OF NEWLY-WEDS

A dinner was given at the home of Mrs. M. Caminatti this week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cavin, from Crockett (nee Caroline Johnson). The evening was spent in card playing and dancing.

Those present were: Miss Ettie Johnson from Crockett, Miss A. Mar-mori, Rose Caminatti, Margaret Caminetti, Leonard Hayward of Oakland, Jack Howard of Oakland, William Jones of Crockett, Jack Steward of San Francisco.

VINEBURG NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and family returned home on Tuesday, after a ten-days trip to the Sierra Nevada, and report a good time amid the snow-clad mountains.

On Sunday last a reception was held at the pretty residence of Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Forni. The guests were received by the Misses Helen and Florence Forni, who in their genial and happy manner made the occasion pleasant for all. The dining room was tastefully decorated, and an elaborate dinner was served, and was a feast for the most fastidious of appetites. The guest of honor was Jacob Mayer, "our ex-mayor." Happy Harry Andrieux acted as toastmaster, and made good. Music, dancing, games, etc., were indulged in during the afternoon. The following guests were present: Jacob Mayer, Harry Forni, Harry Andrieux, Misses Adele Andrieux, Louise Batto, Helen, Florence, Leola and Dolores Forni, and last but not least, the jolly and courteous hostess, Mrs. Henry Forni.

Peaceful Vineburg was treated to quite a surprise this week, when a corps of artistic painters of the N. W. P. R. Co. painted the station house, and now it looks fine.

Adolph H. Rubke visited friends in San Rafael Monday.

Miss Mary Batto returned home on Sunday, after a week's visit with Napa City friends.

NEW TAILOR SHOP FOR SONOMA

G. Verbeck of El Verano has rented Mrs. Poulson's store on Napa street, and will open a tailor shop at that location. The store has been newly painted and renovated by R. Cantoni, and looks much improved.

Mr. Verbeck formerly was in business in San Francisco, and owns a little ranch at El Verano. He decided Sonoma was a good business field, and in addition has work from San Francisco which he will turn out from his Sonoma shop.

CARD OF THANKS

We herewith extend many thanks and sincere appreciation to the many friends and kind neighbors who aided us during the illness and at the death of the late Eduardo Bertolotti. For the words of sympathy which comforted us, and for the beautiful floral offerings, we are most grateful.

Signed,
Mrs. Maria Bertolotti and Family,
August Bertolotti,
Luigi Bertolotti.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Having sold Cantor's Resort at El Verano to S. Rosenthal, I will not be responsible hereafter for any debts contracted for said resort.

Signed, N. CANTOR.
Feb. 22, 1920.

PERSONAL NOTES

F. T. Duhring was in town Thursday from San Francisco.

Mrs. Alma Koebom has been ill at her ranch south of town.

A party was tendered as a farewell to the Sobbe family at Glen Ellen last night.

The Congregational Aid Society will meet at the Henry Bates home on Tuesday next.

Mrs. R. B. Thomas has been quite ill and under the care of Dr. E. Z. Hennessey of Napa.

Everett Sprague came up from Alameda Thursday to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkman were presented with a little son this week. Dr. Hays was in attendance.

Charley Taylor spent Sunday in San Francisco and attended the Orpheum during the afternoon.

Mrs. A. J. Martinson received the sad news from Europe this week that her mother had passed away in Hungary.

James Baines and J. W. Kelly attended the funeral of their old friend and business associate, Fred Boynton, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Burmeister were tendered a surprise party by their friends last Saturday evening, and all had a jolly evening.

Mrs. R. L. Watt was a visitor to San Francisco this week, and while down called on her friend and former neighbor, Mrs. Julia Knight.

Miss Ethel Evans, who has been a substitute teacher in the local grammar school, has returned to her studies at the Normal School in San Francisco.

Margaret Rubke, pretty little daughter of Station agent and Mrs. Grover Rubke of Vineburg, celebrated her fourth birthday Thursday and entertained her little friends at a jolly party.

John Mohr, Sonoma Valley movie man, has opened up his theaters at Vineburg, El Verano and also the Don in Sonoma, on regular schedule, and he says business is good following the raising of the health ban.

J. F. Prestwood took the Rose children to Petaluma in his Ford car last Sunday. They had recovered from the flu, and will be cared for by relatives until their parents are convalescent and can leave the sanitarium.

Mrs. Theo. Richards of Agua Caliente in San Francisco recently, where she attended the funeral of her eldest sister and her niece, Mrs. F. Shaugnessy. Mother and daughter died within a week of one another.

Steve Anazitos and F. Steurmer of Boyes went to San Francisco yesterday morning to attend the funeral of the late Fred Boynton. Mr. Anazitos was associated with the deceased in the motor bus to San Rafael project.

Judge and Mrs. Denny were in town from Santa Rosa Wednesday. It is reported that if the owner of the residence they now occupy wants the house back this spring, the couple may take up their residence at the old Duhring homestead here, later building in either Santa Rosa or Petaluma.

The demand for copies of the Index-Tribune last Saturday was so great that we had to print a second edition. In order to avoid disappointment papers should be ordered ahead. The surest way to get your Index-Tribune for one year. We mail it anywhere without extra charge.

James Sibley of Dinuba, and Dr. R. R. Sibley, a dentist of San Mateo, motored to Sonoma Thursday to attend the funeral of the late Charlotte Sprague. James Sibley was the younger brother of Mrs. Sprague and is aged eighty-one. He was the founder of the town of Dinuba, and a prominent civil engineer and builder.

His son, Dr. Sibley, is a well-known professional man of the Peninsula.

The recent apportionment granted the county schools by the state, has reached the office of the county superintendent of schools, and the high school fund has been apportioned as follows:

Analyst, $1,456.44; Cloverdale, 673.26; Geyserville, 613.72; Healdsburg, 1,360.26; Petaluma, 1,607.58; Court House, 2,312.90; evening schools, 719.06; Sonoma, $980.90; total, $9,628.12.

The fund for the grammar school has not yet been completed, but will be ready to be announced the first of the coming week. This is the first apportionment of the state money this year.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarhal, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. Halls' Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Halls' Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists.

UNCLE SAM'S PALM READ

If Uncle Sam Were to have his palm read Right now, It should prove interesting. The palmist would tell him That he naturally had a Magnificent constitution, But that he should beware Lest it be weakened and undermined.

This is a constitution which should Permit no tinkering. A long life line, too, Uncle Sam's palm reveals, But not a passive one; For the destiny of mankind Is to be worked out by this rugged character.

He will not submit to be The experimental station for every Fad, although sympathetic lines show

Some indulgence, and often too much patience For his own good. It is a hand of toil, With callouses which show belief in toil,

Reverence and faith in the work of the world, Whether it be fashioning the plow-share

Or driving the engine Or pulling the oar. But in that hand is also A distinct connecting line Between brain and brawn.

The understanding of co-operation Between thought and execution. The Creator has shaped a hand Which holds in its palm The destinies of men.

The leaven of reason, through Thought, education, Enriches all to whom this hand Extends its friendly grasp.

The time of travel is distinct. Overseas expeditions, however, should be avoided.

Commerce should be encouraged. Railroad lines in Uncle Sam's hands

Not good. The palm reveals general health and good blood. Except in spots— Look like flea bites— Probably the sting of prohibition. Lines of generosity pronounced. Too generous for his own good. Pleasure-loving lines

Criss-crossed, with net work of joy-killers. Mount of optimism Towers over all depressions. Some double crosses For Uncle Sam;

Warning to beware of false friends Who might lead him into deep water. Political lines well drawn. Letter D fades (Democrats done). Republican party line shows up strong.

Anything else you want to know About Uncle Sam, Read between the lines.

PALMIST.
S. P. TRAIN HAD MISHAPS ON TUESDAY

A series of mishaps brought the Southern Pacific morning train into Santa Rosa two hours late Tuesday.

Trouble started when the train was late in leaving Napa Junction. When the Napa drawbridge was reached, another stop ensued, as the bridge was open to let a steamer pass.

Near the Spreckels place at Sobre Vista, a cylinder head on the locomotive blew out. Singularly enough, the flying steel nearly grazed the head of a man standing near.

Engineer George Such made temporary repairs, and the train proceeded to Beltna, a few miles farther on. There it was found that the engine of the freight train had also broken down. More delay for the passengers ensued. After considerable switching, the passenger train proceeded on its way, and finally limped into Santa Rosa minus one of the cylinder heads of the locomotive.

PARENTE'S ARENA AT VERANO TO BE SCENE OF ACTION (By Wild Willy Webb)

There will be plenty of action at Louis Parente's arena at El Verano Sunday afternoon, for Sergeant Bunker, the next heavy-weight champion, arrives that day, and will work out with four or five talented boxers, who will be training at Parente's for the next two weeks.

Buck Holly, who just came back from a successful trip to Los Angeles, will be on hand also. Buck won three fights down south, defeating some of the best boys in the game there.

Wild Willy Webb will do the best he can to help the boys get in shape, and there will be lots of gloves flying and plenty of excitement for all who attend. Everybody is welcome Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, or any other day in the week, while the boxers are here enjoying El Verano ozone.

VOTERS ATTENTION! You can register at the Index-Tribune office.

Frank C. La Vine, who was here for the funeral of his father, is holding a good position in Stockton with a large contracting firm.
